

Proclamation

by the Mayor of the City of Welch

Whereas, Coal Mining is an important part of our economics, history, and culture in McDowell County, we recognize National Coal Miners' Day in The City Welch to honor our Coal Miners on this most special day, and;

Whereas, West Virginia Coal Miners are a vital part of our community and our local families rely on their dedication and hard work in helping provide many of the products essential to America's most vital needs, and;

Whereas, this notable honor is for each coal miner who demonstrates an extraordinary responsibility by working in the mines; while also serving as community leaders, parents, and role models in the City of Welch and the surrounding area.

Therefore, each of our Coal Miners shall be commended today and everyday hereafter, as we extend our heartfelt appreciation and respect for their efforts in this essential career field.

As the Mayor of Welch, WV, I, Harold McBride, proclaim that we acknowledge each and every coal miner in Welch, WV, and the surrounding area, on this important occasion,

National Coal Miners' Day.

*The City of Welch extends our sincere appreciation and prayer for their continued safety and success by official proclamation on this day, December 6, 2022.

Mayor, Harold McBride, Sr.
